

Online Summer Day Camp

(Backed by the Japan Korea Cultural Foundation)

Date: 8/13 (14:00 - 19:00)

Place: Zoom, Google Meet, Other online platforms

Fee: Free (Since everything is online)

How many people: 20 people

Who is eligible: Students

(Anyone enrolled in Secondary Education - Tertiary Education)

What will we do:

1. Lecture from a top professor
2. Mock Diplomacy based on issues between Korea and Japan
3. Discussion about historical issues
4. Learning and discussing about the media
5. Learning and discussing about Japanese and Korean culture

How to apply:

1. Prepare your answer for the 4 questions listed below.
 - 1) Why do you want to join our online camp ?
 - 2) Why do you think Korea-Japan relations are worsening in recent years ?
 - 3) The Nobel Prize Laureate Aung San Suu Kyi stated the following:

“If you want to bring an end to long-standing conflict, you have to be prepared to compromise”

How do you think this quote applies to the situation between Korea and Japan ?

2. Click the join now button on the Join Today section of our website and fill in your answers to the questions above in the Google Form.
3. Wait for an email from our team.